TRINITY PRIMARY NEWSLETTER

Dear Trinity families,

We have successfully completed our first half term. It has been an extremely busy week full of school trips, church visits and a dress up day. Please make sure to check our blog to see all the fun that has been had over the week.

This week we also elected our new Trinity Voice candidates. They will post their first blog soon, in which they will introduce themselves and set out their aims for the year.

As ever, I wish you the very best of half terms, full of rest and fun, ready for learning on Monday 29th October.

TRINITY ALL THROUGH SCHOOL: LEARNING, LOVING, LIVING

Black History Month: Malorie Blackman

This Wednesday in worship, Miss K told the children about Malorie Blackman and how she is a powerful role model for Trinitarians.

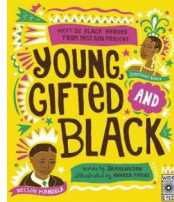

The children were amazed to hear that Malorie Blackman was so passionate about reading that by the age of 11 she had read all the books in her local library!

Who is Malorie Blackman?

Born 8th February 1962 in London

Born to Bajan parents

She read all of the books in her local library by the age of 11!

Harvest Festival at St Swithuns

On Tuesday we came together as a community to be thankful for all that we have and show our support to those who have less than us. Each class confidently performed a song or instrumental recital that they had been working on over the half term. Thank you to all that donated food to AFRIL (Action For Refugees in Lewisham). We were once again blown away by your generosity.

Year 5 and their Vegetable 'foetuses'

Year 5 measured the circumference of a range of fruit and vegetables and entered this data on a bar chart. They measured the food to compare it to the development of the size of a foetus.

Year Two Visit Lovely Londinium

Year 2 Had a great day exploring the area of London in which the Great Fire took place. We had a day jam-packed with role play, dressing up, quill writing and investigative work. We spotted tons of important and famous buildings and sites, including St Paul's Cathedral and Tower Bridge.

Courageous Advocates at Trinity!

Today we took the time to celebrate two of our Trinitarians. Two of our pupils have gone above and beyond in terms of being charitable.

We are very proud of them both!

First Cake Sale of the Year!

Thursday marked our first bake sale of the year. It was very successful raising £202! Special thanks to all those that baked, sold, bought or devoured (or all of the above!). Be sure to look out for our next bake sale scheduled for Dec 6th. Volunteers to bake or sell are always welcome.

Get Colourful Day!

Thank you to all who donated today for the Evelina Children's Hospital. We all looked fantastically bright and we especially loved Mr Beaumont's outfit!
